

United States Before the Civil War

1. The latitude and longitude lines are drawn in 5° intervals. Label these on the north and west sides of the map.
 2. Trace the following rivers in blue and name them on the map:
Mississippi Potomac Ohio Savannah
 3. Go over the Mason-Dixon line heavily with a black colored pencil.
 4. On your map, label the states in 1860.
 5. Outline in red the two states that became states as a result of the Missouri Compromise of 1820.
 6. Outline in green the state that became a state as a result of the Compromise of 1850.
 7. Use yellow to color the areas and states which were to be free of slavery.
 8. Color the areas and states which allowed slavery with gray pencil.
 9. What formed the border between slave and free states east of the Mississippi River? _____
and _____
 10. What was the border between slave and free territories west of the Mississippi River? _____

 11. What state was the exception to this line west of the Mississippi? _____

 12. What three states became states during the Civil War?

- Label these on the map.