

The War that Made America - Part 4 Notes

Why must General Wolfe attack Quebec before winter?

Why is an attack on Quebec so challenging?

How does the French king view the war?

What is Wolfe's plan for the battle?

What critical mistake do the French make?

What becomes of Wolfe and Montcalm?

Is the British victory at Quebec the decisive victory of the French and Indian War?

Why is the alliance with the Iroquois so important to the British?

Describe General Amherst's victory at Montreal?

What lands did the British get after their final victory?

What misunderstandings continued to brew between the British and Americans?

What struggles does Amherst have in keeping the peace?

What is Amherst's view of the Indians?

Who was Pontiac and why did he wage war against the British?

What are George Washington's intentions regarding the Ohio Country?

What is the Outcome for Indian captive Mary Jemison?

What was the Royal Proclamation of 1763?

Why was there a migration to the Ohio after the war?

How did parliament expect colonists to pay for the war?

What was the root of colonial frustrations with British rule?

How did the events of April 1775 change everything for Washington and others about their British loyalty?

What duty does Washington accept from the Continental Congress?

As president will Washington honor previous treaties or set aside land for the Indians?